Our manual, Project CRISS®: Creating Independence through Student-owned Strategies (3rd edition, 2004) is published by Kendall/Hunt Publishing Company in Dubuque, Iowa. This textbook was authored and produced solely by the project. It is a part of our program and is not available on the open market. Since our manual is part of our training program, we are unable to sell it without the accompanying in-service.

-The project charges a per participant training fee of $65.00 + shipping and handling ($50.00, if the trainer is a regular employee of your district). This fee includes the training manual and follow-up support through a tri-annual newsletter.

- Level II training materials are $250.00, plus 5% shipping and handling for standard and 10% for rush orders. They may be obtained only through this office.

- Project CRISS® for Students: It's a Brain Thing ~ Learning How to Learn! is a semester course designed for students in grades 6-9. Please call for pricing of the course materials or refer to the "Support and Promotional Items" order form available at <projectcriss.com>. These materials may be purchased only through the Project CRISS office.

-All other CRISS support and promotional materials including, but not limited to, booklets, posters, T-shirts, mugs, and student cards are produced solely by Project CRISS. All materials are subject to a shipping and handling charge of 10% for standard orders and 15% for rush orders, with a minimum of $7.95.

For all the above items, please refer to the order forms for shipping rates for urgent orders and for orders outside the continental United States.

Please call if you have any questions.
